GOSPEL REFLECTION: Lk 10:25-37

Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise." Luke 10:36-37

Here we have the conclusion to the familiar story of the Good Samaritan. First, robbers beat him and left him for dead. Then a priest walked by and ignored him. And then a Levite walked by also ignoring him. Finally, the Samaritan walked by and took care of him with great generosity.

Interestingly, when Jesus asked the disciples which of these three acted as a neighbor, they didn't respond "the Samaritan." Rather, they responded, "The one who treated him with mercy." Mercy was the key focus.

It is so easy to be judgmental and harsh with one another. If you read the newspapers or listen to the news commentators you can't help but hear continual judgment and condemnation. Our fallen human nature seems to thrive on being critical of others. And when we are not critical, we are often tempted to act like the priest and Levite in this story. We are tempted to turn a blind eye to those in need. The key must be to always show mercy and show it in superabundance.

Reflect, today, upon the call God gives you to show mercy. Mercy, in order to be true mercy, must hurt. It must "hurt" in the sense that it requires you to let go of your pride, selfishness and anger and choose to show love instead. You choose to show love to the point that it hurts. But that hurt is a true source of healing in that it cleanses you of your sin. Saint Mother Teresa is quoted as saying, "I have found the paradox, that if you love until it hurts, there can be no more hurt, only more love." Mercy is the kind of love that may hurt at first, but in the end leaves only love.

PRESENTATION OF THE Mother of God into the Temple

Liturgy Livestreaming at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 21st

The Feast of the Entrance into the Temple of Our Most Holy Lady the Theotokos and Ever-Virgin Mary is celebrated on November 21 each year. On this feast, we celebrate the fact that Our Lady's parents, Joachim & Anna brought her to the Temple at the age of three and handed her over to live there for a long period where she might exclusively contemplate God. The Virgin Mary dwelt in the Temple for nine years until, reaching an age for marriage, she was taken from the Temple by the priests and elders and entrusted to Joseph as the guardian of her virginity.

The Entrance of the Theotokos into the Temple signifies her total dedication to God and her readiness for her future vocation as the Mother of the Incarnate Lord. This is a feast of anticipation. As honor is shown to Mary, the faithful are called to look forward to the Incarnation of Christ, celebrated in a little more than a month by the Feast of the Nativity on Dec. 25.

Reflection - Mary's first presentation to God was an offering most acceptable in His sight. Let our consecration of ourselves to God be made under her patronage, and assisted by her powerful intercession.

We invite our families and children to join Metropolitan Lawrence online for a special lesson about St. Nicholas. A special guest is sure to be there!

Your generosity however continues to be required. We therefore appeal to your generosity, kindness and ask for your kind support in the following ways:

- ◆ Please remember your Sunday obligation. Please attend service with us online or in person following all safety protocols. When possible please receive Holy Communion and during live stream to ask for God's presence.
- ◆ Please take time to pray daily for an end of the Covid 19 pandemic and the normal restoration of our lives. Let us recognize our brokenness and weaknesses and do our best to live as people of true repentance.
- ◆ Show compassion and love to all, especially those who are vulnerable and are suffering with the virus. Please pray also for those who have fallen into blessed repose.
- ◆ Stay in touch with us. Update your contact information with the parish office, especially any email contacts.
- ◆ If you are able, consider offering your time to volunteer to be part of our protocol teams. We offer training and support for anyone interested in helping with this very important and needed service.
- ◆ Please support your church with maintaining your regular donations, sign up for direct deposit or make e-transfer donations, your help is greatly appreciated.
