GOSPEL REFLECTION Lk 8: 26-39

A young man, who lived out among the tombs, was fully possessed by many demons. The demons identify themselves as "Legion" stating that there are many of them. It's clear from the story that this man is wild, out of his mind, and fully under the control of these demons.

Jesus addresses the demons, rebukes them, and casts them out, sending them into a herd of swine. Afterwards, the man is totally transformed as he sits there conversing with others.

When the townspeople came out and saw this man sitting there "in his right mind," they are shocked and are "seized with fear." They do not know what to think about this situation. Why is that?

This young man was so dysfunctional, being possessed by a legion of demons, that the townspeople had written him off. They gave up on him and most likely wanted nothing to do with him. But when they see this man completely transformed, sitting there looking normal and rational, the people don't know what to think. They are shocked. And their shock takes on a form of fear in that they are afraid of what they do not understand.

This reveals something interesting to us. If we fail to understand the power of God, we will actually find ourselves fearful of His power when confronted by it. The townspeople should have been filled with great joy and excitement at the total transformation of this man. However, instead of great joy and excitement, they were fearful. They were fearful because they did not understand God's almighty power.

Reflect, today, upon the power and glory of God. He desires to do great things and to bring total transformation to your life. He desires to cast out the evil one lurking within our world, bringing instead His mercy and peace. As you reflect upon God's power, allow yourself to more clearly understand Him. If you understand Him, you will be more fully ready to rejoice in His good works.

FEAST OF ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL St. Michael the Archangel - the name Michael signifies "Who is Like God" and was the war cry of the good angels in the battle fought in heaven against Satan and his followers. Holy Scripture describes St. Michael as "one of the chief princes," and leader of the forces of heaven in their triumph over the powers of hell. He has been especially honoured and invoked as patron and protector by the Church from the time of the Apostles. Today we ask that our Lord and St. Michael protect and bless each and everyone with peace, love and health. We ask that God will bless all those who carry the name "Michael". To all those who are ill or shut in, we pray that God will grant them blessings of strength and courage .
