GOSPEL REFLECTION: John 6: 48-54

God offers his people abundant life, but we can miss it. What is the bread of life which Jesus offers? It is first of all the life of God Himself -- life which sustains us not only now in this age but also in the age to come. The Rabbis said that the generation in the wilderness have no part in the life to come. In the Book of Numbers it is recorded that the people who refused to brave the dangers of the promised land were condemned to wander in the wilderness until they died. The Rabbis believed that the father who missed the promised land also missed the life to come. When Jesus offers us real life He brings us into a new relationship with God, a relationship of trust, love, and obedience. And He offers us real life which last forever, a life of love, fellowship, communion, and union with the One who made us in love to be Him forever. To refuse Jesus is to refuse eternal life, unending life with the Heavenly Father. To accept Jesus as the bread of heaven is not only life and spiritual nourishment for this world but glory in the world to come. Do you accept Jesus as the bread of life?

Meditation:

"Lord Jesus, You are the Living Bread which sustains me in this life. May I always hunger for the bread which comes from heaven and find in it the nourishment and strength I need to love and serve You wholeheartedly. May I always live in the joy, peace, and unity of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, both now and in the age to come".

TODAY IS FATHER'S DAY - We join our hearts together to thank God for giving us our dads for their love and protection. Today, in a special way, let us be grateful for:

- Our fathers, by birth or adoption, who love us and support us through life.
- Our Church leaders, who take on the paternal role of guiding us through life.
- And God our Father, who will always teach justly and grant us boundless mercy

And to those who have lost their fathers to the Lord, let us recall his memory, his smile & kind words and may they find eternal rest and happiness in the arms of our Lord. Our fathers are God's special gift to us—let us treasure this gift today and always. At this time we extend our love and prayers to our spiritual fathers, Fr. Mark & Fr. Alan and ask that our Lord will bless them with special graces and an abundance of good health.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY - On this special Day, May God Grant all our "Dads" & our "Spiritual Fathers" - Many Happy Years! Многая літа!

We wish to extend our congratulations to Olivia Remarchuk and Ian Wall who received the precious Body & Blood of Jesus last Sunday. THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

The Eucharist is the greatest sacrament of the Church. In the Eucharist, Christ is present in the assembly, in his word but, above all, in the bread and wine transformed into His body and blood shared among us. During His life on earth, we know that Jesus' favorite way of expressing His love for people was to share meals with them. For the Jews, shared meals were signs of acceptance and friendship. In sharing meals with sinners, Jesus was showing them respect and love and drawing them into the family of God. He was letting them see themselves in a new light and become a new people. When we celebrate the Eucharist, we are celebrating a meal to which all are invited and where the poor and the marginalized in society are made to feel at home. Eucharist and Communion go together. The Eucharist is God's communion with us. It is at the same time our communion with one another. God loves us so much that He wants to be with us and wants us to be with Him. Love tends towards union. When we love someone, we want to be with them always. God desires to be with us in the most complete way possible. This is what happens in the Eucharist. God not only speaks His word to us. He enters into us. He takes possession of our hearts and minds and bodies. He becomes one with us. And He wants to make us one with Him. The moment of communion in the Eucharist is the greatest moment of intimacy that can exist between God and us.

It's Time to Reflect.

Reflect, today upon your approach to Holy Communion. The Eucharist is Christ Himself. It's a gift that has the potential to not only sustain us in every way but also to draw us into the greatest Heavenly delights. Believe Jesus' words in this holy chapter of John's Gospel. For if you deepen your belief in all that Jesus has said, you will begin to realize that all you crave in life will begin to be fulfilled by this precious gift in ways beyond your imagination.

My Eucharistic Lord, You are the Bread of Life. You are all that I desire in life. Give me the grace of understanding, dear Lord, so that I can come to believe all that You have revealed about the Most Holy Eucharist.
