Fake News In the July issue of the "Transcona Views" there was an article by James Teitsma MLA for Radisson that a grant was made to St. Michael's Ukrainian Catholic Church for building restoration. As much as we would wish this to be so, it in fact is not true. We have requested them for a retraction in the next issue.

A great big THANK YOU to St. Michael UCWL for transferring $5,000. to St. Michael Parish to cover general operating expenses.

July 31 - GOSPEL REFLECTION:

Matt 14: 14-22

Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds.

Do you ever feel as though you have little to offer? Or that you cannot make an impact in this world? At times, we may all dream of being someone “important” with great influence so as to do “great things.” But the fact of the matter is that you can do great things with the “little” you have to offer. Today’s Gospel passage reveals that God was able to take something very small, five loaves of bread and two fish, and transform them into enough food to feed tens of thousands of people. “Five thousand men, not counting women and children.” This story is not only a miracle for the purpose of providing the necessary food for the crowd who came to listen to Jesus in a deserted place, it’s also a sign to us of the power of God to transform our daily offerings into exponential blessings for the world.

Our goal must not be to determine what we want God to do with our offering; rather, our goal must be to make the offering of all we are and all we have and leave the transformation to God. Sometimes our offering may seem small. It may seem like what we offer will have no benefit. For example, making an offering to God of our mundane daily chores or the like may seem unfruitful. What can God do with this? The same question could have been asked by those with the loaves and fishes. But look what Jesus did with them!

We must daily trust that everything we offer to God, whether it appears to be great or small, will be used by God in an exponential way. Though we may not see the good fruits like those in this story did, we can be certain that the good fruit will be abundant.

August 7 - GOSPEL REFLECTION:

Matt 14: 22-34

Peter said to him in reply, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.” He said, “Come.”

What a wonderful expression of faith! Saint Peter, caught in stormy conditions on the sea, expressed his complete confidence that if Jesus were to call him out of the boat to walk on water, it would happen. Jesus does call him to Himself, and St. Peter begins to walk on water. Of course, we know what happened next. Peter was filled with fear and began to sink. Fortunately, Jesus caught him, and all was well.

Interestingly, this story reveals much to us about our own lives of faith and much more about the goodness of Jesus. So often we begin with a faith in our head and have every intention of living that faith. Like Peter, we often make firm resolutions to trust in Jesus and to “walk on water” at His command. However, all too often we experience the same thing Peter did. We start to live the trust we express in Jesus, only to suddenly waver and give in to fear in the midst of our hardship. We begin to sink and have to cry out for help.

In some ways, the ideal would have been if Peter expressed his faith in Jesus and then walked to Him without faltering. But, in other ways, this is the ideal story, in that it reveals the depth of Jesus’ mercy and compassion. It reveals that Jesus will catch us and draw us out of our doubts and fears when our faith gives way. This story is much more about Jesus’ compassion and the extent of His help than it is about Peter’s lack of faith.

Archeparchy of Winnipeg

A lot of volunteers and financial resources are needed as more and more newcomers arrive in Manitoba every day. There is a need for housing, jobs and mentorship to help our brothers and sisters who have left their destroyed homes to escape the death and horrors of war. Then, aside from typical newcomer challenges, there are even incidents like the newcomer who was assaulted at the Forks.

Please, continue to donate toward aid to refugees via the charities that we have promoted since the beginning of the war. Please also take note of the various appeals for volunteers, housing and other ways of assistance, and respond as generously as possible.

The Feast of the Transfiguration of Our Lord, God and Savior Jesus Christ commemorates the transfiguration of Christ on Mount Tabor, when our Lord appeared in His divine glory before the Apostles Peter, James, and John. This feast is celebrated on the sixth of August. The blessing of grapes, as well as other fruits and vegetables on this day is the most beautiful and adequate sign of the final -transfiguration of all things in Christ. It signifies the ultimate flowering and fruitfulness of all creation in the paradise of God's unending Kingdom of Life where all will be transformed by the glory of the Lord.

Remember to bring fruit for blessing which will be held following each Liturgy on:

- Saturday, Aug. 6 at 4:00 p.m. (St. Anne)
- Sunday, Aug. 7 at 9:30 a.m. (St. Michael)
- Sunday, Aug. 7 at 10:00 a.m. (St. Anne)

My transfigured Lord, You are glorious beyond imagination, and You revealed a small glimpse of this glory to Your disciples to help them trust You more fully. May I also trust in You more completely, knowing that all You have spoken to me is true. Please remove any doubt and fear in my life so that nothing keeps me from embracing Your holy will. Jesus, I trust in You.

They are asking for more people to come forward to help the newcomers settle in and "learn the ropes" and just be a friend or a contact to explain and guide them through the challenging nuances of life in a new land. If you can spare some time – at least maybe inquire to find out if this is for you – contact the U.C.C. volunteer office now.... Tel. 204-942-9348 . Tell them that the Archeparchy sent you.... Ukrainian speaking volunteers to act as "language assistants" for those coming to the UCC-MPC Reception Hub at the Best Western Airport Hotel (Wellington Ave) to help provide a warm welcome to newcomers. Volunteers help connect people to Ukrainian community resources. The Reception Hub is open 6 days per week (Monday-Saturday) and hours vary day to day and go into the evening on some days. It's Time to Reflect.

Reflect today how blessed we are beyond measure that God desires to transform our souls into glorious beacons of light and grace. When He does this, we must strive to constantly see it. And when we suffer or face some Cross, we must never take our eyes off the glorious things He has done in our souls.

Reflect also, upon the beautiful and profound transformation that God has done and continues to desire to do in your soul. Know that He wants you to fix your eyes upon this glory and forever remain grateful for it.

Lord, may I see Your glory and the glory that You have bestowed upon my own soul. May my eyes forever remain fixed on that grace. May I see You and Your glory especially in difficult times.
