Gospel Reflection: Luke 7: 11 – 16

Why was Jesus so moved on this occasion when He met a widow and a crowded funeral procession on their way to the cemetery? Jesus not only grieved the untimely death of a young man, but He showed the depth of His concern for the woman who lost not only her husband, but her only child as well. The only secure means of welfare in biblical times was one's family. This woman had lost not only her loved ones, but her future security and livelihood as well.

The scriptures make clear that God takes no pleasure in the death of anyone— He desires life, not death. Jesus not only had heart-felt compassion for the widow who lost her only son, He also had extraordinary supernatural power – the ability to restore life and to make a person whole again. Jesus, however, did something which must have shocked the sensibilities of the widow and her friends. Jesus approached the bier to make physical contact with the dead man. The Jews understood that contact with a dead body made oneself ritually unclean or impure. Jesus' physical touch and personal identification with the widow's loss of her only son not only showed the depths of His love and concern for her, but pointed to His desire to free everyone from the power of sin and moral corruption, and even death itself. Jesus' simple word of command – "Young man, arise" – not only restored him to physical life, but brought freedom and wholeness to his soul as well as his body.

Jesus is Lord not only of the living but of the dead as well. When Jesus died on the cross for our sins He also triumphed over the grave when He rose again on the third day, just as He had promised His disciples. Jesus promises everyone who believes in Him, that because He lives (and will never die again), we also shall have abundant life with and in Him both now and forever.

St. Anne COMMISSIONING OF CATECHISM TEACHERS AND BLESSING OF CHILDREN AND THEIR FAMILIES

TODAY at the 11:00 am liturgy we are celebrating the Commissioning of our Catechists whereby we take this opportunity to affirm and acknowledge the people who have dedicated to teach the children in the parish the religious education program. We are very fortunate and blessed to have these people who have dedicated their time and talent to such a important service to our children. May God bless all teachers, substitute teachers and returning students. May they be filled with joy of learning about God's plan for all of us.

Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith. Today during the liturgy our parish catechists, our children and their families will be blessed as they begin their important journey to follow Jesus and His teachings.

The letter is issued in view of the annual commemoration on the last Saturday of November of the Holodomor – Genocide, the man-made famine in Ukraine that claimed millions of lives during 1932-1933. Addressed to the faithful in Canada and to all people of good will, the bishops urge a response of faith to the evil of war, violence and death.

It's Time to Reflect.

Reflect, today, upon the power of the words of our Lord. Reflect, especially, upon what our Lord may command to happen in your life. Offer Him, this day, your sins and all that weighs you down and listen for Him to speak to you. Let Him say to you, "I tell you, arise!" Arise from your sin, hurt, anger and pain. Let His words sink in and transform your life bringing what seems to be dead back to life.

Lord, I surrender to You all that I am and all that weighs me down in life. I entrust to You my sin, hurt, anger and all that appears to be an obstacle to the newness of life to which You are calling me. May I surrender all to You, dear Lord, and hear You call me from my despair to newness of life.

Word & Wisdom

Don't forget to Pray today, because God didn't forget to wake you up this morning.
